Bird Lovers.

Nothing matters since you are near—
We do not care, do we, my dear,
Either for rain or fine weather?

Our nest is warm and soft and neat;
Gay red roses over us meet,
And, my dear, we are together.

Thus with you and love and flowers
Only two twifly fly the hours,
My dear, whatever the weather.

Then let the mist darken the lane;
All is bright, spite of cloud or rain,
My dear, if we are together.

And Virtue's work is life exempt from sin,
With arms that aid; and in the sum heroot
